

Dr. Steve Rook

The Arkansas Association of Two-Year Colleges (AATYC) held the 23rd Annual AATYC Fall Conference on October 16th – 18th in Hot Springs. The theme of the conference, “Success by Design”, included informative sessions for higher education personnel in a variety of departments from Arkansas two-year colleges. Keynote speakers at the conference were Toby Daugherty, UALR student, writer and artist and Shane Broadway, Interim Director, Arkansas Department of Higher Education. Dr. Steve Rook, 2010-2011 AATYC Board President, along with the AATYC Board members, organized and presented an outstanding conference this year with approximately 700 in attendance. The 2011 RMCC honorees included; Tisha White, Academic All-Star, John Snider, Outstanding Alumni, Kandy Page, Outstanding Faculty, and Maureen Keese, Outstanding Staff.

Tisha White

John Snider

Kandy Page

Maureen Keese