

RMCC 2011 Part Time II/ Auxiliary Officer Graduation

Seven men and one woman took the Law Enforcement Oath of Honor from Polk County Sheriff Mike Godfrey, Saturday, May 21, 2011 in a graduation ceremony of the Part Time II/Auxiliary Officer class. The ceremony, held on the RMCC Campus, was very well-attended by family, friends, and law enforcement dignitaries. Sheriff Godfrey told the audience that each of the candidates had satisfied the requirements set forth by the Arkansas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Training. Sheriff Godfrey praised the candidates and their families for the time, effort, and sacrifices required for successful completion of this rigorous training regimen. To the 2011 class of Auxiliary Officers we thank for your courage, sincerity, volunteerism, bravery, and your commitment to helping each other, and members of our great community.

Graduates of the 2011 class included Joshua Cecil, Jeffrey Davis, Beth Hughes, Joshua Penny, Rick Stockton, Steven Stout, Stanley Watson, and Brandon Wood. The “Top Gun” award was presented to Rick Stockton, while Brandon Wood and Steven Stout received the “Academic Achievement” award for the class.

Sheriff Mike Godfrey was the lead instructor and course facilitator. Additional instructors included Danny Thraikill, John Maddox, Tim Williamson, Tod Cannon, Ed Gibson, Chris Spurling, and Robbie Hines.
