

RMCC Students Raise Funds for Campus Improvements

Rich Mountain Community College's student organization working toward "Gaining Understanding In Disability Education" recently raised over $400 to assist in the eventual purchase of motion sensor doors for the St. John Library on RMCC's Mena campus. In their attempt to promote a more accessible campus, the students raised funds last semester for a wheelchair accessible water fountain located in the Spencer Building.