

RMCC Students Bring Home SkillsUSA Awards

RMCC College and Career Center Students recently competed at SkillsUSA events and placed in various categories.

Students placing at SkillsUSA – Issac Gwin, Randall Pochmara, Roger Judkins, and Nathan Jumper. Not pictured is Brandon Appleby

RMCC students Isaac Gwin and Brandon Appleby won first place in the Television (Video) Production Team event. Randall Pochmara and Nathan Jumper, Mena High School students in RMCC's Career Center, placed second in the Television (Video) Production Team competition.

Roger Judkins, Mena High School Career Center student, placed first in Aviation Maintenance Technology. Other high school students competing were Jimmy Cook in Precision Machining Technology and Kay Guinn in First Aid/CPR.

SkillsUSA is a partnership of students, teachers, and industry working together to ensure America has a skilled workforce. Students placing first in SkillsUSA will have an opportunity to compete at nationals in Kansas City this summer. For more information regarding RMCC programs and RMCC Career Center call 479-394-7622.

