

Susan Young Shares a bit of history with RMCC's 60+ Classes

Susan Young, outreach coordinator of the Shiloh Museum of Ozark History, was the guest speaker at RMCC's 60+ History class. Young shared information about her new book, So Big, This Little Place. The book is about the history of Tontitown, a small Italian community located in northwest Arkansas.

Kathy Adams, RMCC's 60+ instructor, teaches a course on Ozark history and she and some of her students plan to visit Tontitown during the spring semester. Adams stated Young's visit to the RMCC classes helped students gain an even better understanding of Ozark history.

For more information about RMCC's 60+ classes contact Adams at 479-394-7622 x 1342.