

Upward Bound Camp Ozark Trip – 11-19-2011

The TRiO Upward Bound students attended Camp Ozark on Saturday, November 19th and participated in a variety of trust and teamwork building activities. In the picture Brianna Johnson (Mount Ida) is being lifted through a "web" by Kiana Martinez (Caddo Hills) and Jessika Meier and Josefina Gomez (both from Mena). Abbie Yandell (Waldron), Nathan Smallwood (Mena), Elizabeth Mayo (Oden) and other Upward Bound students are "catching" Brianna on the other side. The objective is to get everyone from one side to the other, without touching the rope or reusing the same hole.

Upward Bound is a federally funded TRIO program that helps first-generation high school students prepare for and succeed in college. RMCC's Upward Bound serves students in Polk, Montgomery, and Scott counties. For more information about Upward Bound, contact Rodney Rowland, Jennifer Howard, or Brenda Miner at 479-394-7622.
